

Anita's lawn could thrive on one canful of water a week.

Frequent, light waterings are worse for lawns than no watering at all—and can lead to thatch and weakened roots. Place a tuna can near your sprinkler and water until it's full. One inch of water will moisten deep into the root zone for a resilient, healthy lawn.

For more helpful information call 240.777.7700. Or visit:

